
Adam Kipp
Executive Director,
RHMA

B.S., The Ohio State University, 2004
Th.M., Dallas Theological Seminary, 2008
D.Min., Gordon-Conwell Theological Seminary, 2017

Both Adam and his wife-to-be, Cara, attended The Ohio State University (Adam majored in mechanical engineering) where they were involved in a small church plant that met in homes and dorm rooms.

God used that ministry experience to develop a deeper call in Adam for full time ministry. And so it was that after Adam and Cara were married in 2004, the two of them headed to Dallas where Adam attended seminary.

After seminary, Adam answered the call to pastor a small church just beyond a corn field in Washington, Illinois. During this time Adam was introduced to RHMA through service projects, conference speaking, TACT class teaching, and service on the official board.

In 2022 God and RHMA extended a call to Adam to continue serving in full time ministry as the executive director of RHMA.

Adam and Cara have three children and a cat with extra toes named Mittens.
